Association of Licensed Multiple Retailers

10 August: More new members for ALMR

The industry's leading association for the independent multiples today announces 3 more companies joining the organisation: Ultimate Leisure - with 34 bars and late night venues in Newcastle and the North East, the Cavalier Pub Company based in Chinnor and operating its 10 pubs in London and the Thames Valley, and EAF Leisure with eight units in the Brighton area and a recent acquisition in London.

Mark Jones, Executive Chairman of Ultimate says: "The ALMR provides exactly what responsible and entrepreneurial operators need - a persuasive case to government on industry issues and timely and effective advice for operators themselves."

Nick Bish is delighted to announce these three new members; "These companies typify the range of the types of company represented by the Association and we really do work hard to support their business success." He adds, "The ALMR adds to the sum of its members which is why we welcome the expertise and influence of these three companies joining the best of the multiple operators that are driving our industry forwards."
